

WHAT OUR ADVERTISERS SAY...

“Community-connected, compassionate, classy, clear-cut, civil. If you’re looking for an advertising outlet that reaches this type of audience, an outlet which delivers a demographic coveted by anyone in business, advertise in Inside Sacramento. That’s why Mercy General Hospital, and our parent organization, Dignity Health does. Because Inside’s audience — and the magazines they produce — embrace all these attributes and much more.”

“We’ve purchased the back page of Inside Sacramento since they were first published in 1996. It was the best decision our office could have ever made. It quickly established us as the real estate leader in our neighborhoods and our volume has grown tremendously as result. We’d never give up our prime spot!”

“More than 20 years ago we chose Inside Sacramento because they were useful and beautiful publications with a creative, artistic edge. Their staff is extremely helpful. They have helped tremendously by raising awareness of our business. The publications saved us in the recent recession and the pandemic by continually reminding customers to come back and shop.”

“I appreciate the high quality design and editorial of Inside Sacramento. Even though we’ve been successful in Sacramento for more than 30 years we understand the need to keep our business in the hearts and minds of our customers. New people are still flocking to our city and we want to make sure they become customers.”

“Twenty years ago we chose Inside Sacramento because they reached the exact demographic audience for our high-end family of restaurants. They have been excellent partners and helped us recover our business after the pandemic lockdowns.”
